

Stage 3: Embed the interface with additional functionalities to allow users to navigate between existing projects through load and save operations.

Stage 2 : Extend interface to allow users to edit , save and delete image labels

Stage 1 : A primitive interface that allows, users to annotate landmarks with polygons and access image files from dictionaries